

Lab 2 conclusion.

We ended up using the Rydberg constant in order to graph. We also used it to derive and also used the data to determine our four hydrogen lines correspond. We calculated energy based on equations that were given to us. The flame test allowed us to see what the unknown solution was based on duration and color & its intensity.